

{gallery}industrial/article_id_508{/gallery}

The King Faisal University Infrastructure Construction was undertaken by Faisal Electro-Mechanical Co. Ltd. and Yüksel Construction Saudia Co. Ltd. and completed in under 3 separate contracts (Phases 1, 2 and 3; 4 and 6). The project is located in the Saudi Arabian city of Dammam on an area of 2,000,000 m², approximately 400,000 m² of which is created by reclaiming.

Some of the major works completed within the scope of above mentioned contracts are the followings: 3,000,000 m³ of sand fill, 3,000 m² control building, 1,800 m³ underground water tank, 300,000 m² road construction, 930 m riprap, thirteen cooling tower and cooling unit each having a capacity of 1,300-ton, water treatment plant with the capacity of 1,200 m³/day, sewage treatment plant with the capacity of 2,100 m³/day, 85 lt/sec sewage pumping station, 250 lt/sec rainwater pumping station, LPG system, piping network, communications systems, the electrical working in buildings including control systems.

Client Saudi Arabia Ministry of Higher Education King Faisal University

Location Saudi Arabia

Contract Date 10 September 2002 (Contract date of first contract out of 3 separate contracts)

Completion Date 08 December 2007 (Completion date of final contract out of 3 separate contracts)

{backbutton}